IN THE FIRST FIVE YEARS WE HAVE...

- been acknowledged by the Scottish Government as key stakeholders in the justice system
- given evidence to the Justice Committee of the Scottish Parliament and joined four Cross Party Groups
- agreed with government the use of 'people with convictions' in place of 'ex-prisoners' and 'ex-offenders'
- instigated a change in the law to make it possible for prisoners to be released one or two days early if this would improve their prospects for rehabilitation
- facilitated prisoner focus groups in connection with draft legislation and policy reviews

AND...

- participated in the redesign of community justice in Scotland and the design and implementation of Independent Prison Monitoring of Scottish prisons
- delivered awareness raising sessions for members of the judiciary, Scottish Prison Service staff and Parole Board members
- worked with SPS HQ and RBS to make it possible for prisoners to open basic bank accounts prior to release
- taken the lead role in bringing together public, private and third sector organisations to establish a network of employers to increase the recruitment and employment opportunities for people with convictions

A photograph of a sunset over a body of water. The sky is filled with horizontal bands of color, transitioning from deep purple and blue at the top to bright orange and yellow near the horizon. The sun is a bright, glowing orb just above the horizon line, which is marked by a dark silhouette of trees and land. The colors of the sky are reflected in the calm water below. The text "thank you" is centered in the middle of the image in a white, sans-serif font with a subtle drop shadow.
